

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 25, 2016

Amariyanna Copeny
Flint, Michigan

Dear Mari:

Thank you for writing to me. You're right that Presidents are often busy, but the truth is, in America, there is no more important title than citizen. And I am so proud of you for using your voice to speak out on behalf of the children of Flint.

That's why I want you to be the first to know that I'm coming to visit Flint on May 4th. I want to make sure people like you and your family are receiving the help you need and deserve. Like you, I'll use my voice to call for change and help lift up your community.

Letters from kids like you are what make me so optimistic for the future. I hope to meet you next week, "Little Miss Flint."

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "Barack Obama", written in a cursive, flowing style.